Partitur

18^{te} Fassung. 1726.

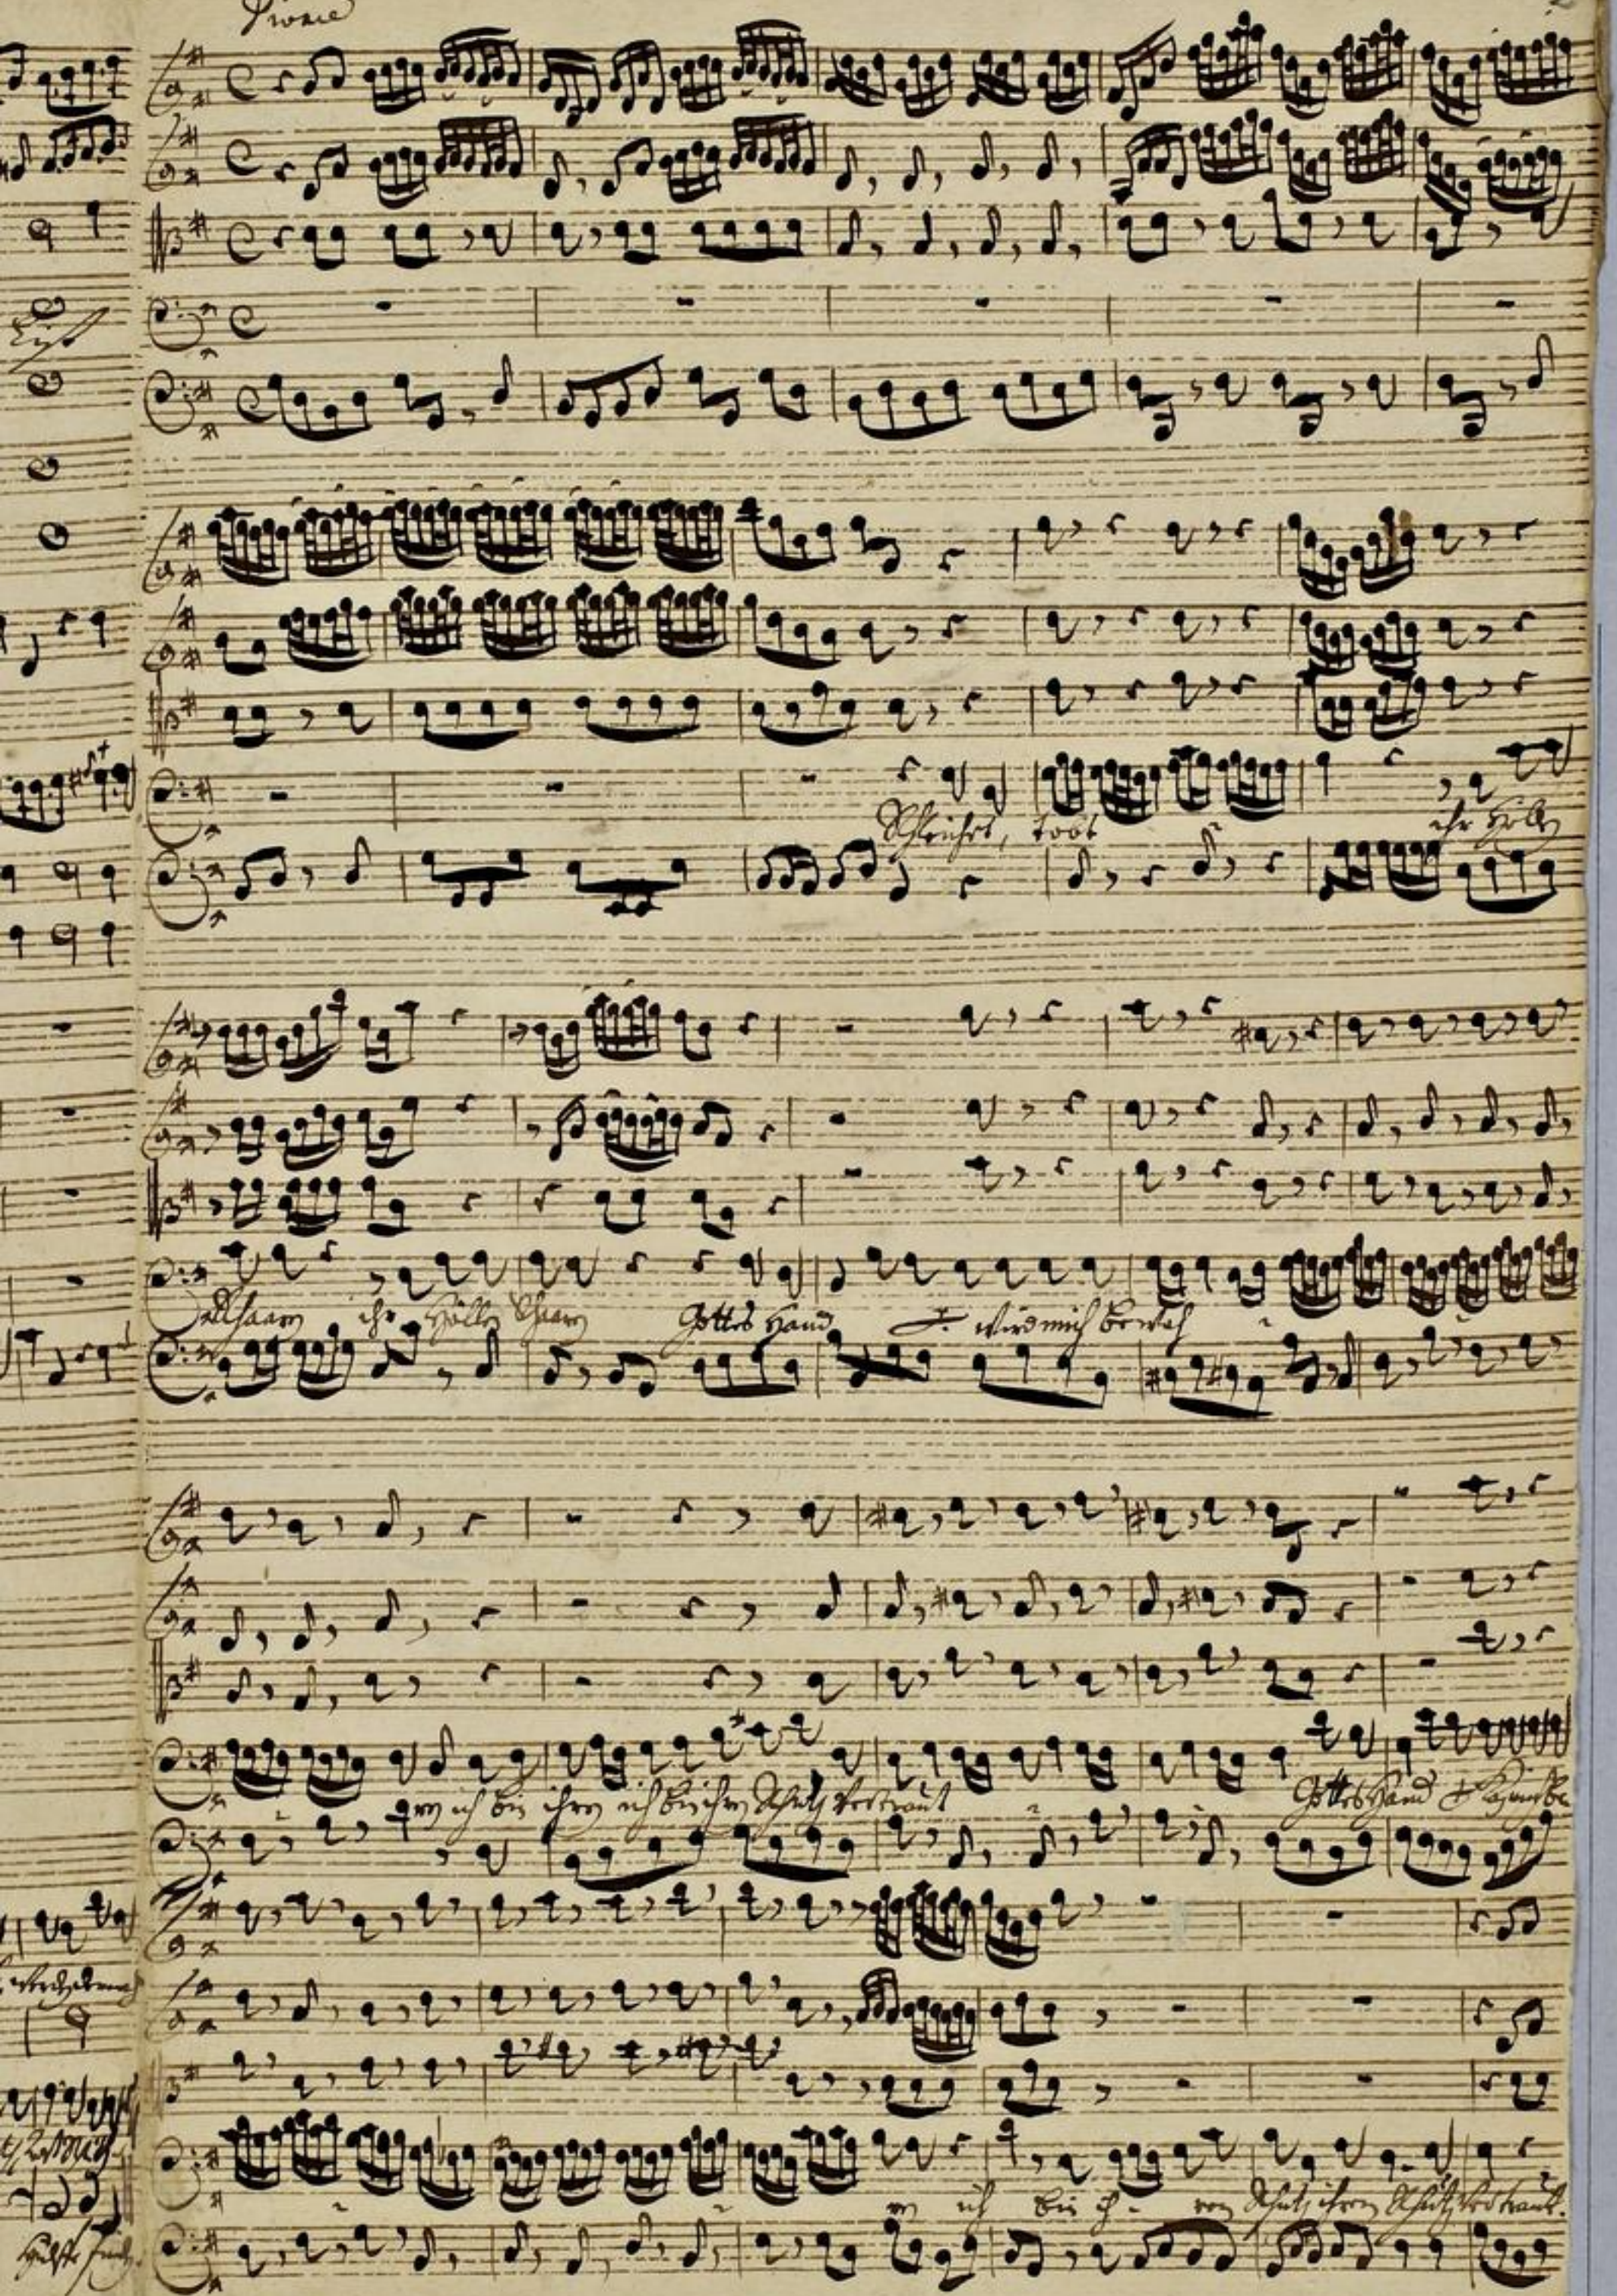

Handwritten musical score on a single page, featuring six staves. The notation is in a historical style, likely 18th or 19th century. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The music is written in a single system. The lyrics "Alles Lob der Heil'gen" are written in a cursive hand across the middle of the staves.

Continuation of the handwritten musical score, featuring six staves. The notation continues in the same historical style. The lyrics "mit dem Heiligen Geiste" are written in a cursive hand across the middle of the staves.

A handwritten musical score on aged paper, featuring multiple staves with musical notation and German lyrics. The title at the top reads "Der Herr ist unser Schutz". The music is written in a historical style, likely Baroque or Classical. The lyrics are in German, starting with "Herr ist unser Schutz". The manuscript shows signs of age, including some ink bleed-through from the reverse side. The notation includes various note values, rests, and bar lines. The handwriting is elegant and characteristic of 18th-century musical manuscripts. The piece concludes with a double bar line and a repeat sign.

Handwritten musical score with three systems. Each system consists of a vocal line (treble clef) and a basso continuo line (bass clef). The lyrics are written in German and are partially obscured by the notation.

System 1: ...der Gott sein Wort ...

System 3: ...der Herr ...
